Types of Ameris Business Accounts

Ameris provides a variety of business account options to cater to different needs. Understanding the types of accounts available can help businesses choose the right one for their operations.

Business Checking Accounts

The Ameris business checking accounts are designed for everyday transactions. These accounts typically offer unlimited check writing, online banking, and easy access to funds. They are ideal for businesses that require frequent deposits and withdrawals.

Business Savings Accounts

For businesses looking to save and earn interest on their funds, Ameris offers business savings accounts. These accounts typically have higher interest rates, allowing businesses to grow their savings over time. They are suitable for setting aside funds for future investments or unexpected expenses.

Business Money Market Accounts

Ameris business money market accounts combine features of both checking and savings accounts. They offer higher interest rates while allowing limited check writing and debit card access. These accounts can be beneficial for businesses that want to earn more on their idle cash while maintaining some liquidity.

How to Apply for an Ameris Business Account

Applying for an Ameris business account is a straightforward process that can be completed online or in person. Understanding the application process and requirements can streamline the experience for business owners.

Gather Required Documents

Before starting the application process, business owners should gather the necessary documents. Common requirements include:

- Business formation documents (e.g., Articles of Incorporation)
- Employer Identification Number (EIN)
- Personal identification (e.g., driver's license or passport)
- Operating Agreement or Bylaws if applicable

Complete the Application

Once the required documents are ready, business owners can complete the application form. This can often be done online through the Ameris website or by visiting a local branch. The application will require information about the business, the owners, and the desired account type.

Initial Deposit

After the application is submitted and approved, an initial deposit may be required to activate the account. The amount can vary depending on the type of account chosen. Once the deposit is made, the account will be fully operational.
