Overview of Austrian Airlines and the Boeing 787

Austrian Airlines, the flag carrier of Austria, is renowned for its commitment to quality service and passenger satisfaction. The introduction of the Boeing 787 Dreamliner into its fleet marks a significant milestone in enhancing its long-haul travel offerings. The 787 is celebrated for its fuel efficiency and advanced aerodynamics, which contribute to a smoother flying experience. Austrian Airlines has tailored its 787 to ensure that passengers enjoy an elevated level of comfort, particularly in business class.

The airlines operate several routes using the 787, connecting major cities across Europe, North America, and Asia. The modern design of the aircraft, combined with Austrian Airlines' hospitality, creates a unique flying experience that sets it apart from competitors.

Seating and Comfort

One of the standout features of the Austrian Airlines 787 business class is its seating arrangement. With a 1-2-1 configuration, passengers enjoy direct aisle access, ensuring ease of movement throughout the flight. Each seat is designed to provide maximum comfort, featuring adjustable headrests, generous legroom, and the ability to recline into a fully flat position.

Seat Features

The business class seats on the 787 are equipped with numerous features that enhance passenger comfort:

- Large Personal Space: Each seat offers ample personal space, allowing passengers to relax without feeling cramped.
- Privacy Dividers: The seats include privacy dividers that can be raised for a more secluded atmosphere.
- Power Outlets and USB Ports: Passengers can easily charge their devices during the flight.

- Adjustable Lighting: Ambient lighting can be adjusted to suit personal preferences, contributing to a restful environment.

Sleep Experience

For long-haul flights, Austrian Airlines prioritizes the sleep experience. The fully flat beds are complemented by high-quality bedding materials, including comfortable pillows and duvets. This focus on sleep quality is critical for passengers looking to arrive at their destination refreshed and ready to go.

In-flight Services

Austrian Airlines prides itself on its attentive in-flight services. Business class passengers receive personalized attention from a dedicated cabin crew trained to meet high standards of service excellence. From check-in to disembarkation, the experience is designed to be seamless and enjoyable.

Pre-Flight Services

Before boarding, business class passengers are often granted access to exclusive lounges where they can relax, enjoy refreshments, and prepare for their flight. These lounges typically feature comfortable seating, complimentary snacks, and Wi-Fi access.

Onboard Services

During the flight, passengers can expect:

- Welcome Drinks: A selection of welcome beverages is offered as soon as passengers settle into their seats.
