Overview of the Film

Unfinished Business was released in March 2015 and is known for its comedic take on the trials of business travel. The film follows a group of three men who travel to Europe to close a deal for their company. However, their journey quickly spirals out of control, leading to a series of outrageous adventures. The film's narrative is driven by the interactions between the characters, highlighting themes of friendship, ambition, and the chaos of international business. The overall comedic tone is supported by a talented cast that brings each character's quirks to life.

Main Cast Members

The film features a prominent cast that includes several well-known actors. Each cast member was chosen not only for their acting prowess but also for their ability to deliver comedic performances that resonate with the audience. The main cast includes:

- Vince Vaughn as Dan Trunkman
- Dave Franco as Mike Pancake
- Tom Wilkinson as Chuck Portnoy
- Nick Frost as the antagonist

Vince Vaughn as Dan Trunkman

Vince Vaughn plays the lead role of Dan Trunkman, a father and businessman who is determined to make his venture successful. Vaughn's portrayal of Dan captures the character's frustrations and aspirations, embodying a mix of earnestness and comedic timing. His experience in comedic roles adds depth to the character, making Dan relatable to audiences.

Dave Franco as Mike Pancake

Dave Franco portrays Mike Pancake, a young and enthusiastic employee who joins Dan on the trip. Franco's character brings a youthful energy to the group, often providing comic relief through his naive yet optimistic outlook. His chemistry with Vaughn enhances the film's humor, contributing to memorable scenes that highlight the dynamics of their friendship.

Tom Wilkinson as Chuck Portnoy

Tom Wilkinson plays the role of Chuck Portnoy, an older and more experienced businessman who offers a contrasting perspective to Dan's ambitions. Wilkinson's performance adds a layer of wisdom and humor to the film, as his character navigates the chaos that ensues. His interactions with the younger cast members contribute to both comedic and heartfelt moments throughout the movie.

Supporting Cast

In addition to the main cast, Unfinished Business features a variety of supporting characters that enrich the story. Notable supporting cast members include:

- June Diane Raphael as Laura Trunkman
- Keegan-Michael Key as a business rival
